

Do you allow soda sales at school?

What is your policy on bullying?

Who is allowed to visit my child's school?

How do you disseminate information to parents?

What is my child allowed to wear to school?

If you're like most boards, you field questions like these regularly. Make it easier for administrators, teachers and parents to access your district's policies with NJSBA's convenient online policy publishing service. Your policy manual will be easy-to-search and simple-to-access 24 hours a day.

What Does the Service Provide?

- Universal ability to access and download district policies
- Interactive links from each policy to related New Jersey statutes, codes, and case law
- A search engine designed to locate specific policy language
- Customized table of contents

What Are the Benefits?

- 24/7 access to any district policy from any Internet-enabled computer
- Improved "self-serve" capabilities for the community and media
- Reduced administrative costs associated with updating paper manuals
- Improved turnaround time on policy updates

What Are the Costs?

NJSBA's affordable member rates make the service a cost-effective way to improve communications with your stakeholders, reduce paper communications and free precious time for other tasks.

Initial Year $3,200

Renewal $2,650 per year
