Honoraria

NJSBA staff may accept honoraria on behalf of the Association for professional/consulting services provided to another agency or organization, when this service is directly related to the staff member's position with the Association and is carried out with the endorsement of the Association. Staff shall notify any agency or organization offering or providing an honorarium for services of this regulation and shall endorse it over to the Association.

Staff are prohibited from receiving honoraria or fees when providing services under the paid consulting policy in this file code.
