

PERSONNEL

WORKERS' COMPENSATION

Workers' Compensation

Workers' compensation laws provide lost wages and medical expenses to an employee who has an injury as a result of an on-the-job accident, injury or occupational disease. Workers' compensation is designed to protect employees and their dependents against the hardships from injury or death arising out of the work environment. All permanent and temporary employees of the Association are covered by workers' compensation insurance.

Authority: BD 10/00