The Role of NJSBA's School Finance Committee

NJSBA believes that the responsibility for sending-receiving issues be retained under the School Finance Committee since one-third of local districts in New Jersey are in a sending-receiving relationship.

NJSBA shall direct sending-receiving issues to its School Finance Committee. As necessary, the committee should use the subcommittee structure to address these issues. Any subcommittee so constituted should reflect the balanced equal representation of sending, receiving and non-sending/receiving districts.
