Succession of Duties

- A. In the absence of the president, the vice president with the longest seniority as hereinafter described shall perform the duties of the president; if the first in seniority should be absent, then the vice president with the next longest such seniority shall perform these duties.
- B. For purposes of this section, the seniority of each vice president shall be the length of his or her service as an officer of the Association. In the event two vice presidents have served as officers of the Association for an equal length of time, then each one's respective length of service on his or her local board of education shall determine his or her seniority.
- C. In the absence of the president, the vice president with the longest seniority shall preside at any meeting at which the president should preside. However, if the president and all vice presidents are not present at any meeting, the executive director shall conduct an election for a temporary chairperson from among the members present.
- D. In the event of a vacancy in the presidency, the immediate past president shall perform the duties of the president until the vacancy is filled. If the position of president becomes vacant and there is no immediate past president, the most senior vice president shall perform the duties of the president.
